Yolo County Ballot Drop Box, Vote Center and Mobile Vote Center Locations and Hours for the November 8, 2022 General Election

Yolo County will offer 16 Ballot Drop Boxes and 13 Vote Centers countywide for the upcoming November 8, 2022, General Election.

Additionally, a Mobile Vote Center will travel throughout the rural areas of Yolo County for seven days prior to the election providing the same services as a typical Vote Center, to ensure everyone has the ability to cast a ballot, Elections staff reported.

The combination of Ballot Drop Boxes, Vote Centers and the Mobile Vote Center allows voters a variety of locations and times to cast their ballots.

Ballot Drop Boxes

Ballots collected in the Ballot Drop Boxes are picked up by Yolo County Ballot Box Retrieval Teams. Some Ballot Drop Boxes will be secured outdoors and open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Ballot Drop Boxes are constructed of heavy-duty steel and built to withstand vandalism, illegal removal and inclement weather. The ballot deposit slot is also designed to prevent tampering and unauthorized removal of ballots. Countywide, there will be 16 Ballot Drop Boxes available Monday, October 10 through 8 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, November 8, when they are closed and sealed:

Vote Centers

There are 13 Vote Centers spread out across the county with some open for four days and others for 11 days,” said Jesse Salinas, Yolo County Assessor/Clerk-Recorder/Registrar of Voters.

At Vote Centers, voters can cast a ballot, drop off their own vote-by-mail ballot or someone else’s vote-by-mail ballot (as an authorized agent). Voters can also receive bilingual assistance, mark a ballot privately and independently using an ADA-accessible ballot-marking device, pick up their own replacement vote-by-mail ballot or replacement envelope, register to vote, or update their voter registration as well as cast a “conditional voter registration” ballot.

Conditional voting, sometimes called same-day registration, is for people who missed the voter registration deadline on Monday, October 24, 2022.
